

Downtown Association.

On another level, the Placerville Art on Parade organization is hosting their successful "Banners On Parade" community art project. Look up to see these beautiful works of art along Main Street on the light poles and the Bell Tower. The beautiful banners will debut on Main Street in June and be exhibited until mid-October when they will be for sale at a Silent Auction at the October 16th Art & Wine Festival.

And if that were not enough, there is a "grass roots" effort to beautify Main Street with hanging flower baskets on light poles and the Bell Tower in downtown Placerville. The Placerville Downtown Association's "Flower Power" Committee hosts an annual fundraiser and is accepting sponsorships throughout the year to be able to increase the number of blooming baskets. This year will feature nearly 50 hanging flower baskets in historic downtown Placerville from May through October. A partnership has been established with MORE Workshop to have their clients water the baskets throughout the season, and they do a terrific job!

With so many exciting events and beautification activities being planned, there is much to see and celebrate in Placerville. Hopefully, this will be a bright spot that brings a sense of pride to those who live, work or visit this vibrant community! And there are many other special events to stimulate your senses, like Girls' Night Out, Bell Tower Brewfest, Antique & Craft Faires and much more.
